

Montana Conservation Voters • 2010 Gallatin & Park County Area Legislative Endorsements

House District 62: Rep. Bob Ebinger (D - Livingston) seeks a fourth term in the House, where he earned a lifetime MCV score of 100%. Bob served as a Livingston City Commissioner, and was part of "Vision Livingston," which works to revitalize Livingston's historic business district. He was also a leader of the Montana Ambassador program. He faces Dan Skattum (R). www.bobebinger.com | 222.0438 | buffalojump@imt.net

House District 63: Rep. JP Pomnichowski (D - Bozeman) seeks a third term in the House. JP consistently votes to protect Montana's clean air and water, earning a perfect 100% voting record. JP was a volunteer firefighter/EMT on the Bridger Canyon Volunteer Fire Department for 10 years. She plans to continue her work to ensure coal bed methane development respects landowners and water quality. She faces Tom Burnett (R). www.jpformontana.com | 587-7846 | pomnicho@montanadsl.net

House District 64: Rep. Franke Wilmer (D - Bozeman) is a Montana State University professor, running for a third term. She earned a 100% MCV score in her first three terms in office. As a legislative leader, elected in 2009 by her peers, Franke helped move the Democratic caucus toward policies that protect Montana's clean air, water and open space. In November, she faces Nick Landeros (R). www.frankewilmer.com | 599-3639 | franke.wilmer@gmail.com

House District 65: Kathleen Williams (D - Bozeman) seeks an open seat vacated by Rep. Brady Wiseman. Kathleen has 27 years of experience in natural resource policy, planning and implementation, including staffing the House Natural Resource Committee and the Legislative Environmental Quality Council. She faces Nick Mahan (R). www.kathleenhd65.com | 570.1917 | kathleenhd65@bresnan.net

House District 66: Rep. Mike Phillips (D - Bozeman) seeks a third term in the House. He has worked for the National Parks Service and privately to restore wildlife populations in the west. In his first two terms in office, Phillips earned an MCV score of 92%. He faces Jedediah Hinkle (R). 599-6857 | mikephillips@montana.net

House District 69: Mary Lane Olson (Three Forks - D) comes from a 4th generation ranching family, and her father was State Senator. She served on the school board for nine years, and worked at Bozeman Deaconess for 25 years. She faces Rep. Washburn (R). 285-3184 | maryvocek@aol.com

Senate District 31: Julia Page (D - Gardiner) is a long-time grassroots leader of Montana Conservation Voters, Northern Plains Resource Council and their local affiliate, and the Greater Yellowstone Coalition. She owned and operated Yellowstone Raft Company in Gardiner for twenty seven years, has been involved in the Gardiner Chamber of Commerce and is committed to small business development. Julia faces Ron Arthun (R). 848-7571 | jpage@wispwest.net

Senate District 32: Senator Larry Jent (D-Bozeman) is running for re-election to his second term in the State Senate where he earned an excellent MCV voting record. He has long served on fish and wildlife management committees, and is a staunch supporter of Montanan's unique stream access law. He faces Michael Comstock (R). 587-1210 | larry@imt.net
